

action of the members of Parliament amounts almost to treason, and the same terms are applied to Sir William Vernon Harcourt's remarks by the "War-at-any-price" party.

Those who think the situation has not yet passed the Rubicon of action to the Africans in President Kruger's answer to the ultimatum, are certainly not to be deceived. The report that he has personally petitioned Queen Victoria to avert hostilities, certainly does not bear out the alarmist reports of English correspondents in South Africa that President Kruger determined long ago upon war. Nevertheless, preparations for that eventuality continue energetically on both sides. The Boers are launching and British troops are reaching Kimberly and Lady Smith, the onward march of the latter being marked by enthusiastic exultations from the scared inhabitants and hordes hurrying southward for safety.

The last report of Boer activity emanates from Newcastle, Natal, saying the Transvaal forces are encamped at Zandvoort and intend to raid Natal immediately after they understand that Mr. Chamberlain's reply is not satisfactory.

The British Army Nursing Service from Southampton and Maj.-Gen. French sailed Saturday. He goes to Durban, Natal, to command the cavalry brigade. The foregoing includes all the actual developments, but they help little to solve the international question—Will there be war?

The answer of President Steyn, of the Orange Free State, to Sir Alfred Milner, the British High Commissioner of South Africa, is not regarded as a satisfactory explanation of the Free State's attitude. It means no means dissipated the increased seriousness with which the situation is regarded. Since the first it has been reported that the Free State had aggressively assisted the Transvaal.

Vanity Fair, frequently well informed regarding political secrets, today emphatically states that the serious situation that there will be no war.

President Kruger is an old man, but he is not doing anything to get his own way, but not at the cost of defeat. Climb down he will. We maintain the belief that there will be no war.

Vanity Fair takes the view which is shared by several weeklies, that the alarmist daily papers have created a fictitious crisis.

Conservative sifting of the conflicting opinions and rumors now prevailing regarding the outcome of the dispute will be more practicable after tomorrow's Cabinet meeting, though the official announcement of the Ministers' decision is likely to be delayed a few days.

The London edition of the Standard and Digests' News of Johannesburg have at cable dispatch today reporting to be from Johannesburg, saying that the returns from the field corners of the Transvaal and Orange Free State show that 3,000 burghers are ready to take the field at short notice.

SITUATION SERIOUS.

Gen. Joubert Takes a Gloomy View of the Future.

PRETORIA, Sept. 21.—[By South African Cable.] Gen. Joubert, the Boer commander-in-chief, is quoted as saying, in an interview, that the situation is serious. Probably the heaviest fighting would occur on the Natal border. The British are likely to attempt to invade the Transvaal by way of the Van Reins Pass.

Trent messages are reaching the Boer from Natal, and are demanding authority for the Boers to mass at strategic points.

INDIAN TROOPS EN ROUTE.

BOMBAY, Sept. 21.—[By South African Cable.] A detachment of the Devanahalli regiment and a squadron of the Nineteenth Hussars, have sailed for the Cape.

NO MESSAGE FROM KRUGER.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Reuters' Telegram Company announces this evening that no message had been received by Queen Victoria from President Kruger.

KICKERBOCKERS WILL ACT.

Holland Society of New York in sympathy with the Boers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Ex-Judge George M. Van Hoesen says that the Holland Society at its next meeting, October 13, will certainly take the question of the trouble between Great Britain and Transvaal, and will adopt resolutions of sympathy with the Boers. An appeal in behalf of the Boers is to be drawn by ex-Judge Augustus Van Wyck, Tunis G. Bergen, president of the Holland Society, and himself. This will be submitted to the society at its next meeting for action.

The members of the Holland Society, said Judge Van Hoesen, "regard Great Britain's treatment of the Boers as outrageous. The citizens of Dutch descent are not alone in this belief. The majority of all the people think the same way. The Germans are just as much in sympathy with the Boers as the Dutch are. The Irish are heartily in sympathy with the Boers. In fact every man who sides with the Boers, assumes the professor is of the same way of thinking. It is only a plain case of Great Britain robbing the people of the Transvaal. The land has gold in it, and the English want the gold. That is all there is to it. It is on a par with Great Britain's attempt to rob Venezuela. She would have succeeded in that attempt, except for Grover Cleveland. It is likely if he were now President, he would take some action in the present case."

G. W. Van Sicken of the Holland Society recently circulated a petition to extend an offer of mediation by the United States.

UP AGAINST IT HARD.

England Behindhand With Her Military Preparations.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—[By Atlantic Cable.] While the precise results of the secret session of the Raad of the Orange Free State is not yet known here, President Steyn's speech at the opening of the session is regarded as an almost infallible indication of the attitude which the Free State will take.

Commenting from this point of view, the London morning papers are all impressed with the added gravity of the situation and murmurs are beginning to be heard regarding the dilatoriness of the government in getting troops for war, and military men are said to be impatient. They assert that everything is ready and that they are only waiting for orders.

It is recognized that the attitude of the Orange Free State makes the original estimates based upon Dutch neutrality too small. Evidently much larger force will be required.

The government is faced with something like a dilemma. The leader of the opposition has publicly denounced the precipitancy of the Colonial Office in forcing on a conflict to convulse Parliament. If, on the other hand, so large an expenditure as the apparent attitude of the Orange Free State would involve should become necessary, the government would be obliged to summon Parliament in order to get adequate supplies. It is understood that the money question accounts for the dribbling manner in which the troops are being forwarded.

Germany military experts, realizing the seriousness of the campaign before Great Britain, are commenting with astonishment upon the fact that England is so behindhand in her preparations. In Berlin, it is also believed that Dr. Leydolt, acting as President Kruger's official agent, and that he is misleading him by reports that he is likely to get sympathy, if not assistance, from some of the European powers.

No member of the Cape Cabinet was present at the meeting of the African members of the Cape Parliament yesterday. A dispatch from Pretoria announces that arms continue to be served to the burghers.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITIES.

HON. JOHN BARRETT ENLIGHTENS COAST BUSINESS MEN.

Tells San Francisco Merchants of Possibilities for Trade With the Orient—Splendid Openings in the Philippines and Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ed Corrigan is no longer the dominating power in the Western Turf Congress. In today's session of that association he met unexpected and complete defeat. Many stories circulated around the room in which the meeting was held in the Wellington Hotel. One is that Corrigan had seen his pet schemes dissolve, lost control of himself and threatened to floor a couple of delegates. The principal disaster to Corrigan happened when the congress refused to intervene in the threatened war among the tracks on the Pacific Coast. He came to the conference with a well-laid plan that the congress should be empowered to fix the dates for all tracks included under their jurisdiction, as well as for any track outside, but in their assumed territory. Secretary Nathanson of the Harlan Road, made the light on Corrigan and his scheme. He showed why the congress should not adopt the plan, as it meant a short season for the Chicago tracks, and it was bound to lead to favoritism. In speech which it took two hours to deliver, and which he said afterward was the greatest effort ever made before the congress, Nathanson took the delegates off their feet, and when Corrigan's resolution came up it was snuffed under, and Corrigan's solid support before the meeting dwindled down to nothing at the close. Had Corrigan carried through his plans, the congress, which he then would have controlled, would have apportioned dates in favor of Ingleside and Tanfaron Park to the injury of the Oakland track.

STOCKTON FAIR RACES.

Winning Favorites Give the Bookies Most of the Money.

STOCKTON, Sept. 21.—A card of five running races and a trot brought out the best crowd up to date at the Stockton fair this afternoon. The grand stand was filled with people, and the heat of the trot was called. The public was hungry for running races, but little chance of winning any money.

Four out of five races, which 2 to 1, 1 to 1 and 1 to 1 to 5 were given by the syndicate book were returned winners, and as few put down a bet on the successful horses at such odds, the bookmakers quit with about all of the money.

There was a roar over the heavily-played second choice, McFarlane being left at the post in the mile handicap, and many are not chary about writing that it was a fair fault, as he appeared to make no effort to get the bay away. An assistant lashed the horse, but the boy held him so he made the fastest time in the flying bunch. He turned him around and came back to the stand.

Hank was made favorite in the first heat of the 2 1/8 mile trot, but he won so handily he was backed for the second and final trial and took it in a flash. Alaria, Trea Jolie and Ojai romped home in the two half-mile dashes, while Alaria won the six-furlong event under a double wrap. LIEUT. MACEO'S IRE.

DASHING CUBAN LIEUTENANT FALLS FROM GRACE.

The Hero of Many a Bloody Field Wanted to Use His Machete on the Volunteers of America at Seattle.

His Blue Blood Would not Stand Any Joking So He Immediately Wanted to Beat Some One's Head.

Admits That He Got Mad, but Denies Having Said Anything About Killing—Makes a Midnight Call.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THIS TIMES.]

SPOKANE (Wash.), Sept. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lieut. Santiago Maceo, son of the great Cuban general, officer in the Cuban army, erstwhile lecturer upon his native land, protégé of the Red Cross Society, hero of a sensational drama in police circles and a shining light in the experience of the Volunteers of America, no longer appears at the meetings here.

The dashing exponent of Cuba's wrongs fell in love. Rumor saith that the innamorata was a relative of Mrs. Suders, a volunteer. This woman denies it, while Maceo says it is true.

There was quite a disturbance at the hall Friday night. Maceo was talking with two of the volunteers near the door when one of them jokingly told the other not to talk to Maceo. Thereupon the lieutenant got angry and said he would fight the men. I was passing and I told Maceo he must not act so in the house of God. Then he said he would get his machete and kill us. I told him to go away and he went out doors.

"About 12 o'clock that night I heard some one rapping on my door. I live upstairs. I asked who was there and Maceo responded, 'It is me—Maceo.' I told him I could not see him, but he continued to make a noise until Mr. Austin came out on the floor below and ordered Maceo out of the house."

This is Maceo's story: "Last Friday night I was talking to two volunteers in the hall when one of them said the other should be spoken to. I was mad, but I am a Christian. I told him I would beat his head against the wall, but I did not say anything about killing, for I am a Christian."

OUTLAW SEARS CAPTURED.

Squirrel-sculp Swindler Caught After Almost a Year's Chase.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] COVLEO, Sept. 21.—Another Round Valley outlaw was rounded up today, after having successfully eluded the Sheriff's officers from two counties for almost a year. The man who was captured is William Sears, wanted for complicity in a homicide perpetrated upon the officials of Merced county, and the arrest was effected by Deputy Sheriff Wiley of Merced county and Grubb and Redwine of Mendocino county.

The charge upon which Sears and his four alleged confederates are now under arrest is of having procured squirrel scalps in Arameda county, where no bounty is paid, and of having taken the scalps into Merced county and there collecting bounty for the same. The amounts thus obtained from the Merced county officials aggregating $1500.

The skill of the officers was taxed to the utmost to locate Sears, who for many months had avoided arrest, and had led the detectives an exciting chase through a rugged country, where he managed to keep posted regarding the movements of the officers, to whom rumors came from time to time regarding the outlaw's whereabouts. They always failed to catch up with him, however, and Wiley finally retired from the hunt some time ago. Deputy Grubb and Redwine maintained the pursuit, however, and upon Wiley's return to the chase this week, they discovered the outlaw's retreat, and today landed their man.

CRACKER COMBINE REVIVED.

Pacific Coast Biscuit Company's Deal at Last Consummated.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SEATTLE (Wash.), Sept. 21.—The promoters of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company have paid $200,000 in cash, as the first payment on the purchase of seven of the principal cracker and candy factories on the Pacific Coast. This is the consummation of the cracker combination which was formed last spring by eastern investors, headed by C. W. Warner of Syracuse, N. Y., and which became abortive owing to the failure of the purchasers to supply the cash demands as they fell due.

Since the former deal fell through the promoters of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company have been working diligently to effect a consolidation of cracker interests on the Coast, and have now apparently succeeded. The new company starts its business with a capital of $4,000,000. The factories purchased are as follows: Southern California Cracker Company at Los Angeles; Cracker Company of Portland and Seattle; Washington Cracker Company of Spokane; Oregon Cracker Company, Portland; Seattle Cracker and Candy Company, Seattle, and the American Biscuit Company, San Francisco.

The larger factories take part cash and part stock in the new organization. A considerable sum is set aside in the plans of the company for improvements and extension of trade.

LANDMARKS GONE.

Passengers on Steamer Rosalie Tell of Earthquake's Havoc.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SEATTLE (Wash.), Sept. 21.—The steamer Rosalie bears upon her stem mute evidence of the general shaking up which has occurred in the north. When the steamer crossed the entrance to Taku inlet she encountered fields of icebergs, through which she had to pick her way. Into one of these floes the steamer struck her nose with force enough to break away a portion of the stem, and the iron plating that held it down. The unusual quantity of ice is due to the breaking away of the floe of Taku glacier.

The Rosalie passengers say landmarks have disappeared, and where green-fringed shores were before the earthquake, now stand pools of salty water. The Yakutians and the Klinkets and other tribes fell on their faces and implored the Great Spirit to stay His wrath and let His anger pass. There was also a tidal wave twenty feet high. The disturbance was felt 100 miles inland and was very violent even at that distance.

The Rosalie brings $150,000 in gold dust and 100 passengers.

SALINAS IN MOURNING.

Many Friends Attend the Funeral of the Murdered Sheriff.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SALINAS, Sept. 21.—The entire city is in mourning over the death of Henry Reid Bailey, who was the youngest sheriff in California. The intense excitement which has prevailed here since the murder of the officer by George Sussner on Monday night, subsided, at least for the time being, and one and all joined in the expression of bereavement at the loss of such a gallant officer and worthy citizen. Never before has this city seen such a funeral. Extra trains were run from the south and Monterey to accommodate friends of the deceased, while from far and near country people left their thrashing and other duties and came many miles to town in order to pay their respects to the dead hero. No church was large enough to hold the throngs, so religious services were held in the Armory Hall. All public houses, stores and saloons were closed in the forenoon, while every available flag was hoisted at half-mast. The city was indeed in a gloom. Funeral services were conducted under the auspices of the Odd Fellows of this city, and Gonzales, while Native Sons acted as an escort. Public schools were closed, and the children participated in the funeral procession.

MUTINIOUS SAILORS.

The Jabez Howes Has a Stormy Voyage from Baltimore.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The American ship Jabez Howes has arrived in port from Baltimore with four of the crew in irons and the police flag flying in the main rigging. The officers and men have been at outs ever since the ship left the East, and in consequence there are charges and counter-charges. The men say that as soon as they are paid they will have Capt. Clapp and Mat Rodgers arrested for "beating and wounding on the high seas." The mate retorts by saying that the men are incompetent and insubordinate. Several times they nearly mutinied, and last Saturday they would have done so had he not placed the ringleaders in irons. Maceo, the mutineer, was ordered and Emil Dorst, a member of the crew, refused to obey it. The order was repeated and Dorst made a rush at the mate, who was armed with a pistol. The other officers, armed with pistols, soon quelled the disturbance and Dorst, Peckler, Kelly and Lutz were placed in irons. They will be turned over to the United States Marshal and charged with mutiny.

EXPERT LOVE'S TIME.

Found not Guilty of Presenting Fraudulent Claims for Services.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] MARYSVILLE, Sept. 21.—In the case of the People vs. H. H. Love, late expert to the grand jury, who was charged with having presented fraudulent claims for his services against the county of Yuba in connection with his employment as expert, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty this evening.

There still remains another case against Love on a charge of the same nature, embracing time alleged to have been irregularly charged for by him during the month of March of the present year. Love admitted on the witness stand that he had perjured himself in the testimony he gave before the Board of Supervisors in support of the claim for fraudulent presentation of which he had just been acquitted, but he claimed that he did so as a matter of expediency and for the best interests of the county. The verdict rendered was not unexpected, owing to the light now going on between the different factions in this county.

TRAGEDY IN A SALOON.

San Francisco Fireman Shot Dead by a Bartender.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—As the result of a drunken quarrel which started last evening in a saloon on Third street, and terminated today at the same place, William Kennedy, a fireman, is lying dead at the morgue, and Warren Main, a bartender, is at the city prison charged with murder. Main is a night bartender at the saloon and encountered Kennedy when he came on duty. Neither were sober, and the trouble of last evening was renewed.

After an exchange of many uncomplimentary remarks, Main drew a revolver with which he slapped the fireman on both cheeks. Then stepping back, he fired the bullet striking Kennedy in the chest just under the collarbone. He then fled to the Receiving Hospital. Main was placed under arrest. Kennedy was about 32 years old, and as far as known, had no relatives in this city.

CHECK SWINDLER'S WORK.

Spurious Paper Offered for Collection at a Stockton Bank.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] STOCKTON, Sept. 21.—Four checks for $75 each, and all signed by a supposed fictitious party who had no funds at the bank, were offered for collection at the Stockton Savings Bank this morning, but were not paid though indorsed by well-known business men. They were cashed for various sums under their face except in one case, by a man named Finner, who is known here as a hotel steward. The checks were made payable to one C. S. Parker and bore that indorsement. The man who distributed them was intoxicated yesterday and his friends are trying to square it on that ground, and will pay up the several amounts realized. It is recognized as only a case of obtaining money by false pretenses and may not be prosecuted. Parker is said to be here yet.

ASSAULTED AND MURDERED.

Missing Della Scoville's Body Found in Nehalem River.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] TILLAMOOK (Or.), Sept. 21.—The body of Della, twelve-year-old daughter of E. W. Scoville was found this morning at low tide in the north fork of Nehalem River with a stone tied around her neck. The girl had been missing from her home at Nehalem since Tuesday evening. It is thought the girl was assaulted and then murdered.

MRS. CRAVEN'S PETITIONS.

First of Many Filed is Denied by Judge Troutt.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The first of the many petitions filed by Mrs. Nettie R. Craven in her renewed attacks upon the estate of James G. Fair was denied by Superior Judge Troutt today. It was the petition whereby the alleged contract wife of Senator Fair sought to set aside the decree of partial distribution to the children, made in open court in April, 1897.

The decree in question disposed of the real estate, which was taken out of the probated will by Judge Black's decision, and transferred to the children in the will. That decision is now under deliberation in the Supreme Court.

In deciding against Mrs. Craven's claim Judge Troutt thought it unnecessary to file a written opinion. Mrs. Craven's petition being barred by the statute of limitations.

COLEMAN'S SAD END.

Young Ensign on the Iowa Dies of Self-Inflicted Wounds.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Ensign Noah T. Coleman of the battleship Iowa died today in a private hospital, as a result of a complication of troubles and a bullet wound inflicted by himself some time ago in an attempt at suicide. Young Coleman had been condemned to stand trial by court-martial for various offenses. The wound would not have caused death, but his vitality was so weakened by worry that he could not survive.

Ensign Coleman came from one of the oldest and most respected families of New York. He entered the Naval Academy with the brightest prospects, and his sad end will be a great blow to his people in the East.

MORE SMALLPOX CASES.

Disease in Camp of Thirty-first Regiment at Angel Island.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Two new cases of smallpox broke out at the camp of the Thirty-first Regiment on Angel Island today, and in consequence the transport Grant has been ordered to the quarantine station to be fumigated. She has all the belongings of the men on board. These will be unloaded on the quarantine hulk and after being fumigated will be sent back to the quartermaster.

BOILER-MAKERS GO OUT.

It May Lead to a General Strike on the Water Front.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—There was no change in the boiler-makers' strike today. The men declared they will not yield and the managers of the different iron works are not prepared to accept eight hours as a day's work. The boiler-makers now assert that the demand will be made to apply to all inside jobs, and there may, in consequence, be a general strike all along the water front today.

OCHOA FOUND GUILTY.

Murderer of His Mistress Convicted on the First Ballot.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 21.—After a trial occupying only two days, the jury on the first ballot, found M. Ochoa guilty of murder in the first degree, for killing a woman with whom he had lived for several years, and who, tired of supporting him, left him. Ochoa found her and shot her twice, killing her instantly.

NAPA VALLEY GRAPES.

Prices are High and the Fruit the Best Ever Produced.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] CALISTOGA, Sept. 21.—Grape-picking commenced in earnest in most of the vineyards in the upper Napa Valley this week. While the crop is only about three-fourths of the average yield, the quality is said to be the best ever produced in this section. The grapes are running from 21 to 28 per cent. sugar and are large and healthy. The price has advanced in the past three days from $14 and $15 to $17 and $18 per ton, and it is believed that the price may go as high as $20 for choice lots before the end of the week.

KILLED BY GAS.

Young Servant Girl Found Dead in Her Room.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Louis Schlager, a young domestic, was found dead in her room in the house where she was employed today. She had been asphyxiated. She was in a measure ignorant of the use of gas, and last night, after writing a letter to a friend, she failed to turn the gas off completely. She evidently tried to save herself, because the body was found near the door where the fumes had overcome her just as she was seeking fresh air. Miss Schlager was 18 years old and arrived from Eudora, Kan., three weeks ago.

OLD-TIME COUNTY FAIR.

San Jose's Celebration to Be on a Grand Scale.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SAN JOSE, Sept. 21.—The directors of the Santa Clara and San Mateo Agricultural Association District, No. 5, at a meeting today, postponed the county fair until December. They held it this week of the semi-annual celebration of the State, which is to be held here. It is proposed to make it on a larger and grander scale than any previously known here. It will be patterned after the old-time county fairs.

MINING ENGINEERS.

Annual Convention to Meet in San Francisco Next Week.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The annual convention of the American Institute of Mining Engineers will meet in this city on Monday and 150 delegates from Eastern States are due to arrive here on Saturday. A delegation will go from this city to the Oregon State line to meet the visitors. The visitors will be taken to all the principal mines in California before their return East.

AULL'S RE-ELECTION.

Reported Action of Board of Prison Directors Denied.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SACRAMENTO, Sept. 21.—There is no truth in the statement published in the morning papers of today that the State Board of Prison Directors, in session at the Folsom penitentiary last night, reflected Charles Aull as warden. The matter of the wardenship was not considered. Brainerd F. Smith was re-elected as clerk of the board for four years, beginning on October 4.

LEPER ORDERED DEPORTED.

Action in Mrs. Todd's Case May Affect Many Others.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The Commissioner of Immigration at this port has received a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury directing him to deport to Mokulua, the Hawaiian leper settlement, Mrs. L. M. Todd, who has been an inmate of the pesthouse for some time. This is the first notice of its kind ever issued from Washington, and its effect is regarded by the local health authorities as far-reaching and almost certainly the beginning of a movement to transfer all the lepers in the city to Mokulua, now a government settlement. Mrs. Todd objected strenuously to the deportation.

DANGEROUS SODA WATER.

Fountain Explodes With Fatal Results at Vacaville.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] VACAVILLE, Sept. 21.—This afternoon while Karl Kopp, proprietor of the Vienna Bakery, was charging a soda fountain, it exploded, killing his assistant, Karl Gottlob Andler, a native of Wurtemberg. Kopp was uninjured. Andler came to Vacaville last Saturday from San Francisco, and was to leave on the afternoon train today.

Seattle Larcenist Arrested.

STOCKTON, Sept. 21.—James "Fitzgerald" wanted in Seattle for grand larceny, was arrested here today.

AMERICAN ART JUDGES.

Names of Those Who are to Act at the Paris Fair.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Art judges for America at the Paris fair were named today by John B. Cauldwell, director of fine arts for the American exhibit at the Paris Exposition.

The national advisory board, appointed for the purpose of consultation regarding the policy and administration of the department of fine arts, consists of the following: Thomas Allen, Boston; J. W. Beatty, director Carnegie Art Institute, Pittsburgh; D. H. Burnham, director of art works at the World's Fair, 1893; Howard Russell Butler, president American Fine Arts Society, New York; Thomas B. Clarke, Walter Cook, Chicago; J. Templeman Coolidge, Jr., Boston; J. H. Gess, assistant director Museum of Fine Arts, Cincinnati; C. L. Hutchinson, president Art Institute, Chicago; Halsey C. Ives, director Museum Fine Arts, Boston; Samuel H. Kaufman, president Corcoran Art Gallery, Washington; Harrison S. Morris, managing director Academy Fine Arts, Philadelphia.

In selecting the juries to pass upon the work sent in for selection, Director Cauldwell appointed representatives from the various cities, and the standing of the cities, as producers of art. New York secured the largest number of members and was followed by Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and St. Louis. The jury is composed of the following: Cecilia Beaux, Edwin H. Blashfield, J. G. Brown, H. H. Cass, Ralph Clarkson, Frederick Delman, Frank Duveneck, Winslow Homer, H. B. Jones, John Joseph, George W. Maynard, H. Siddons Mowbray, Edward Simmons, T. C. Steele, Edmund C. Tarbell, Frederick P. Vinton, J. Van Hook, J. Alden Weiss, Charles Woodbury, Edmund H. Wuergler.

To save artists residing in the Western States the expense of sending exhibits to New York, a preliminary jury will be organized to meet at the Art Institute in Chicago, October 20. It will forward works selected to New York to be judged by the national jury.

Early in November the three special juries chosen to pass upon the illustrations, drawings, etchings, engravings and miniatures will meet in New York and begin the work allotted to it. The jury on architecture will convene at the same time. Members of these juries are:

Illustrations and Drawings—Otto H. Bacher, West Clandinet, A. B. Frost, Howard Pyle, William A. Rogers, and William T. Smedley. Miniatures—William J. Baer, Laura C. Hill, and J. A. Joseph. Engravings and Engravings—Frank French, Charles A. Platt, James D. Smillie and Henry Wolf. Architecture—John M. Carr, Frank Miller Day, Gilbert, William B. Mead and R. S. Peabody.

There will be one national jury for sculpture, which will begin its labor about October 20. This consists of H. Adams, D. J. French, J. Q. A. Ward, of New York; Lorado Taft, of Chicago; Bela Paul, of Boston; and Charles Graefely of Philadelphia.

All proposed exhibits in the Department of Fine Art, except sculpture, are to be delivered at the building of the American Fine Arts Society, No. 214 West Fifty-seventh street, New York, or at the Art Institute, Chicago. Artists are eligible for exhibition, and shall have been produced since May 1, 1899, by a citizen of the United States.

CAPT. CARTER'S ENEMIES.

Wayne MacVeagh Charges Publication of Falsehoods.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The following letter from Ex-Secretary Wayne MacVeagh explains itself:

"To the Associated Press: I beg to be permitted to correct, through the Associated Press, two new misstatements which I am sorry to find the enemies of Capt. Carter have invented and put in circulation in different newspapers during my absence in Europe. One is that he has paid me a retaining fee of $10,000, and the other is that he has agreed to pay me the additional sum of $50,000 more in case of his acquittal. I only desire to advise that both these statements are sheer and absolute falsehoods, without a particle of foundation or excuse for either of them."

MOTOR MANUFACTURERS.

Association Formed to Maintain Prices in the Trade.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—At a meeting of electric motor manufacturers at the Grand Pacific Hotel, a temporary organization was formed. J. Gilbert Hickox, of the Cutler-Hammett Manufacturing Company of Chicago, being elected chairman. The objects of the new association is to maintain prices in the trade. The cost of raw materials, iron, steel, copper and other materials, has advanced 25 to 50 per cent. within the last few months and it is the desire of the electric motor manufacturers to effect a corresponding increase in the price of the finished article. About forty manufacturing firms from all parts of the United States were represented.

VENEZUELAN REVOLUTION.

Castro, the Rebel Leader, Holds the City of Valencia.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—A dispatch to the Herald from Port of Spain says: "Gen. Castro, leader of the Venezuelan revolution, holds possession of the city of Valencia, and has been entertained at a banquet by leading Valencia citizens. It is reported that President Andrade meditates an attempt to escape from the country. It is said he has a yacht waiting for him at La Guayra."

LABORERS' JAGS.

They Will Have Them Twice a Month or Quit Work.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] JOLIET (Ill.), Sept. 21.—Five hundred laborers on section 13 of the drainage canal struck today. The contractors have been paying them twice a month, but owing to the frequency of the strikes which resulted from this, it was decided to pay monthly. The men objected and struck. They are largely foreigners, and trouble is feared.

[PIRE.] DEATH-DEALING FLAMES.

DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION AT NORFOLK, VA.

St. Vincent's Hospital Burned—Lives of Several Inmates and One Fireman Lost—Disastrous Blaze in Chicago Stockyards District.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] NORFOLK (Va.), Sept. 21.—The hospital of St. Vincent de Paul was almost totally destroyed by fire between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning.

Three bodies have been taken from the ruins. They have not been identified. Fireman Baird, who was injured, died this afternoon. Firemen at work on the fourth floor discovered the body of a woman believed to be that of Mrs. McCune, an aged demented patient.

The property loss, it is believed, will reach $200,000, with comparatively little insurance.

St. Vincent's Hospital was four stories high exclusive of the basement, constructed of pressed brick, with stone trimmings, and was one of the best-equipped institutions of its kind in the South.

STOCKYARDS FIRE.

Much Damage Done to Stable Buildings at Chicago.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Fire this afternoon did $275,000 damage to buildings in the stockyards district. There were 100 horses in the stables at the time the fire broke out, but none of them were injured. The pavilion where the fire originated was a large stable with an amphitheater, where exhibitions of thoroughbred stock were held. It was valued at $60,000. This is a total loss, together with its contents, which amounted to $900.

The Transit House, the largest hotel in the stockyards district, was damaged to the extent of $75,000, other losses are: The Dexter Park stables and contents, $23,000; barns occupied by Newgass & Son, and Elder & Co., horse dealers, $10,000.

COLLEGE BUILDING BURNED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] LEBANON (Mo.), Sept. 21.—The Culpeper-Shannon College building, that was built at a cost of $75,000, burned today. The loss is said to be total.

CANADA'S CANOE.

Premier Laurier Says the Dominion Can Paddle It Alone.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] TORONTO (Ont.), Sept. 21.—At the Middlesex county fair at Stratford, Premier Laurier said:

"There is one question, the Alaskan boundary, which has proved a stumbling block to the success of the Joint High Commission. We have therefore stood by our rights; that we have not obtained the success which we might have expected, but, gentlemen, there is no one, I am sure, in this audience who will regret it, or would express any regret upon it."

"We have done our best, and if we have done nothing else we have stood by the dignity, the honor and the rights of Canada. We want to be on the very best terms with our neighbors to the south; we want to trade with them. But if they will not trade with us, our hearts will not be broken by the fact."

"We can live without them. We can prosper without them, though I make no secret that there are many things upon which I, for one, would be glad to have better relations with them. But if the price is to be paid by the sacrifice of Canadian honor, we will have none of it. We will stand by our own canoe. We want to have the very best relations with our neighbors, but while that is our aim, our aim above all things is Canada first, Canada last and Canada always."

CHICAGO BOHEMIANS.

Societies Arraigned on the Charge of Encouraging Suicide.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The Tribune today says the Chicago Bohemians are incensed over the circulars sent out by the Bohemian Brotherhood of America, arraigning their societies on the charge of encouraging suicide. Prominent Bohemians say that the "Brothers" will find trouble awaiting them if they come to Chicago to attempt their alleged reforms. There is said to be considerable mystery surrounding the identity of the brotherhood. The theory of many Bohemians is that the circular represents an attempt on the part of religious bodies to drive non-church-going Bohemians back into the congregations they have deserted.

FILBERT'S ASSAILANT DEAD.

Would-be Bank Robber's Wound Proves Fatal.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The man who, under the name of Walter Lawton, yesterday inflicted fatal injuries upon Frederick J. Filbert, the used cashier in a private bank at Palatine, a town near here, died today from a gun shot wound inflicted by Farmer Piaggi, who went to the assistance of Filbert.

LABORERS' JAGS.

THE DREYFUS CASE. A CLOSED INCIDENT.

DREYFUS AFFAIR NO LONGER
AN ISSUE IN FRANCE.

At least the Minister of War says
the Army Must Forget It and Think of the Future.

Gen. de Gallifet issues an Order to Corps Commanders Forbidding
Further Attraction of the Matter.

The Pardoned Prisoner Staying With
His Brother-in-law in an Isolated Village—Martial Law
in Alsace.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
PARIS, Sept. 21.—The Minister of War, Gen. de Gallifet, has addressed
the following order to the corps commanders:

"The incident is closed. The military judges, enjoying the respect of all,
have rendered their verdict with complete innocence. We all, without harboring afterthought, bend to their decision. We should in such a manner accept the verdict.

"There can be no further question of reprisals of any kind. Hence, I repeat it, the incident is closed. I ask you, and if it were necessary, I should command you, to forget the past in order
that you can think solely of the future.
With you and all my comrades I proclaim 'Vive l'Armée,' which belongs to no party, but to France alone."
(Signed) "Gallifet."

The order will be read to the troops
throughout the French army.

DREYFUS AT CARPENTRAS.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
CARPENTRAS (Department of Vau-cluse, France), Sept. 21.—Although the arrival of Dreyfus this morning at the home of Paul Valabroque, his brother-
in-law, who has been established as a cloth merchant here for a quarter of a century, was soon known, no demonstration occurred.

Mme. Dreyfus is expected here tonight.

While Dreyfus's health does not permit of his resuming his military duties,
the climate will restore his strength
during the next few months, which he is expected to spend here.

PORT CHABROL SEARCHED.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

PARIS, Sept. 21.—M. Guérin, president of the Anti-Semite League, who surrendered to the police yesterday morning, was taken this morning to "Fort Chabrol," the headquarters of the League. The premises were searched by the police, M. Guérin looking on. A few Guérinists gathered and cheered their leader.

MARTIAL LAW IN ALGERIERS.

tial law.

PITY INSTEAD OF JUSTICE.

Emile Zola Writes an Assuring Letter to M. Zola.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
PARIS, Sept. 21.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Aurora publishes a letter written by Emile Zola to Mme. Dreyfus, in which the writer rejoices at the former captain's pardon, but says that "it is revolting," writes M. Zola, "to obtain pity when one asks for justice,
and all seems to have been precon-certed in order to bring about this last iniquity. The judges, wishing to strike
the innocent in order to save the guilty,
seek refuge in an act of horrible
hypocrisy which they call mercy."

M. Zola expressed his indignation at the government's treachery before the arrangement of a faction, and adds:

"To think of going to appease the people by means of iniquity is the height of voluntary blindness. The only way to have saved France's honor in the eyes of the people has been to submit the case to the Court of Cassation, but our degradation is such that we are reduced to congratulating the government for having shown itself
merciful."

"But this rehabilitation, which ought to have been the glory of the country, does immediately to my husband
may await with upheld head. We are going to fight him, and we shall fight vigorously as yesterday. What we want is the rehabilitation of an innocent man—less for him who has so much glory, than for the rehabilitation
of France."

BYLAND'S TERRIBLE CRIME.

Kills His Wife and Brother and Then Commits Suicide.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
WALLA WALLA (Wash.), Sept. 21.— O. B. Byland killed his wife and his brother Grant, and then committed suicide this afternoon. The tragedy occurred under the brow of the hill, a few hundred yards from the State penitentiary.

Byland arrived here yesterday from Pomeroy, Wash.,
in search of his wife, who, at the instance of her mother, Mrs. Kilgore, deserted him two years ago. She has been living with her mother and Grant Byland.

O. B. Byland, through a fit of jealousy for his wife and hatred for his mother-in-law, determined to kill them all. He procured a pistol and quietly stole to the house where his wife and brother were. Upon being refused entrance he shot his brother
through the heart. Not finding Mrs.
Kilgore there, he turned on his wife, who
he chased into a vacant lot back of the house, and when a short distance
behind her, shot her in the back.

Although bleeding and weakened
from the wound, she arose from the ground and a terrible struggle ensued.
For several minutes they fought desperately, he shooting and striking while she attempted to take the pistol from
him. After becoming exhausted, she again fell, and the infuriated husband
shot her in the face, mutilating it beyond recognition.

He then lay beside his wife and shot himself, blowing the top of his head off. Byland and his wife lived at Pomeroy, Wash., from what can be learned, they were favorably known in that locality. A coroner's inquest will be held tomorrow morning.

A letter was found on Byland's body
addressed to Coroner Black, in which he says: "I go to kiss my wife for the last time, and now I am going to kill Grant Byland and Mrs. Kilgore, and then I am going to kill my wife, then kill myself and put an end to us all."

(Riverside Press.) Byland's warning
to Democrats not to rely too strongly
on the anti-trust issue is for once sound and timely. He sees that many of the trusts are breaking up from natural causes and that others will collapse before the meeting next year
of the national conventions.

Men's Suits today and tomorrow at prices that ought to bring you here post haste==values you'll never forget if you see the clothes.

Spot cash and a buyer's generalship performed a masterstroke.

$9.35

A manufacturer's mistake assisted. The maker made the clothes right—made them as near perfect as it is possible to make a suit—but some one having authority blundered seriously—made nearly three times as many suits as the order called for, and Mr. Manufacturer had to face a loss. Our buyer "talked business"—"talked immediate delivery"—"talked spot cash"—and—closed the deal. Mr. Manufacturer has the money and we've the best, the very best sack suits for men, to show you this thirty-five any store ever showed a customer at a considerably higher price. Cheviots and cassimeres in checks, plaids and mixtures—tailored in a manner any maker could point to with pardonable pride. There'll be a rush for these suits this morning—that's certain—although the lot is large we'll not be a bit surprised if sizes in some styles are broken before night

GIGANTIC RAILWAY DEAL

VANDERBILT'S DEATH NOT LIKELY TO DELAY IT LONG.

Prospective Combination of Huntington, Rockefeller and Vanderbilt Interests for the Creation of a Vast Transcontinental System.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The Journal and Advertiser says: "While the death of Cornelius Vanderbilt may temporarily delay the consummation of the deal, from reports now current, the projected combination of roads (in many cases the 'combination' may be simply in the way of traffic agreements thrown to the New York Central and composed exclusively of Vanderbilt properties.)

"At present time the deal, which
is comprehensive than any heretofore brought about in American railroad properties, representing nearly a half of the New York Central and Huntington, Rockefeller and Vanderbilt roads. Not only will there be a through mid-continent line from New York to Pacifi Sound, but there will also be a southern transcontinental line.

"The Chicago and Alton will figure in the deal as a connecting link between
the New York Central and Lake Shore
at Chicago, and the Missouri, Kansas
and Texas at St. Louis and Kansas City. The Southern Pacific will be reached by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, giving a through line to Southern California, which is a much nearer point to the Philippines for shipping
than any port on the Pacific coast.

"Mr. Rockefeller, as a director in the New Haven road, and an important factor in the Boston and Albany, will throw to the New York Central the control of the New England roads. He is also an important factor with the Vanderbils in the Chicago and Northwestern and the Union Pacific, which will be combined for the most direct transcontinental line, practically under one management. This will be the southern arm of the gigantic railroad
system, which will include the Oregon
Short Line and the Oregon Railway
and Navigation, which have, in fact,
been already taken over by the Union Pacific.

"Mr. Rockefeller controls the Missouri, Kansas and Texas and is largely interested in the Chicago and Alton."

(San Francisco Bulletin.) It would seem that Emperor William now has nothing to speak to cover the ancient
enemies of his people with confusion.
By so doing he would not only save Dreyfus, but would incidentally do much to "make himself solid" all over the world, and notably in this country.

YOUNG SALESMAN'S DEATH.

The Girl He Went with Charged with His Murder.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

PRINCETON (Ill.), Sept. 21.—Miss Kate Herbolzheimer was indicted by the grand jury here today for the murder of Charles Salesman, a young man
with whom she had been keeping company. Miss Herbolzheimer claimed that Salesman had asked her to marry him, but that she declined to do so.

She says that for several weeks after
she rejected him, she received anonymous letters, of which she believed him
to be the writer, and in which her life
and that of her relatives were threatened. After that she found some strychnine about the well at her father's home, and she claimed that Salesman
had left it there.

With a carriage and horse she drove to Hollowayville, where Salesman was at work, and asked him to take a ride. They proceeded a few blocks
when a shot was fired. Both had revolvers. Salesman received four bullets and died next morning. Miss Herbolzheimer received two shots and recovered. She will plead self-defense,
claiming that Salesman commenced
the shooting.

ACURE FOR TRUSTS.

ST. LOUIS CONVENTION SUGGESTS A REMEDY.

Governors and Attorneys-General Adopt Resolutions and Adjourn After Two Days Spent in Speech-making.

Widely Divergent Views Made it Hard to Arrive at Conclusions Which Were Satisfactory to All Concerned.

Gov. McMillin of Tennessee Avers That the Fight is Not Being Waged Against Corporations or Capital.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—After two days of speech-making, the Governors, Attorneys-General and other statesmen who have been holding a conference here by invitation of Gov. Sayers of Texas, adopted resolutions outlining the legislation needed to control the so-called trusts and combines, and adjourned sine die.

The resolutions embodied were agreed to after a long session of the committee. So widely divergent were the views presented for its consideration, that it was after midnight when the committee was able to arrive at any conclusion. The whole matter was then referred to a sub-committee composed of Gov. McMillin of Tennessee and Atty.-Gen. Smith of Texas and Campbell of Colorado, to put into proper shape.

The conference was to have met at 9 o'clock, but it was noon before it got down to business, as the committee on Resolutions was not ready to report until then. The delayed reports of Atty.-Gen. Griggs were read, and then Gov. McMillin, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the report of the committee.

In presenting the report of the Committee on Resolutions, Gov. McMillin said he was aware of the fact that trusts and combinations in restraint of trade are in a degree dependable upon foreign, State and municipal governments for their continuance. He believed it was incumbent upon the national, State and municipal governments to restrain the operations of these trusts and combinations.

"The situation and perhaps the efforts of the conference are thus understood," the speaker continued. "It is not the object of this conference to crush corporations nor to interfere with capital in any legitimate form. The object of these resolutions is to destroy either corporations or to destroy capital, but to regulate them so as to meet the fair demands of all people. This is the purpose and this is the object we hope to accomplish. The organization of trusts and combinations within the last two years is the occasion and authority for our presence here. We are engaged to secure proper power for the curtailment of what is apparently a menacing evil, and the accomplishment of this object can be effected through the independent action of the citizen.

"We have the best land in the history of man. We furnish the world with 31 per cent. of the manufactured articles of the world, and 32 per cent. of all the banking. In the matter of agriculture, notwithstanding Great Britain, Russia and other countries, we feed the world. This agricultural land is not organized and cannot be organized into trusts or combines, and must be protected against other interests which can combine.

"The industrial and other important interests are combined to control the wealth of the country in the hands of a few, and by this means, the sweat and toil of the millions is controlled.

"Our object is to prevent this. Corporations are combined in proper proportion to the successful conduct of business, but they should not be so managed and controlled as to monopolize it. It is not proper to place the commerce of this great country in the hands of three or four people and thereby control the labor and destiny of the republic.

"When all these industries are combined into one hand for the instant of a given article they paralyze labor without extending sufficient protection. It is one of the objects of this conference to correct this condition of affairs.

"Within recent years, I think less than two years, not less than 250 trusts have organized with a capital of $2,500,000,000. If all the gold of the earth could be marshalled into one sum it could not pay the obligations of these trusts; if all the silver taken from the earth were applied it could not cancel the obligations of these combinations.

"Why is this so? It is so because they are capitalized on wind and water. No national government, State government or municipal government has ever forced them to declare a dividend. You know and I know they cannot be made to pay a dividend. One of the objects of these sessions is to correct this evil, if possible.

"Another effect: These combinations have affected the life and earning power of a vast number of people known as commercial travelers: 75,000 having been deprived of their positions within two years. Is the consumer benefited by this? Anybody can answer that by the fact that it is patent to all that no one is benefited, but the trusts, by reducing the cost of production and increasing the price of the product, thus oppressing the consumer. We believe in a system of inspection of the books, property and assets of these combinations. Is there any wrong in this? It is in conformity with the Constitution and the laws of the nation and the State.

In conclusion, the speaker claimed that the interests were so vital as not to be of a partisan character, but contended that a prohibitive tariff had much to do with the creation of trusts, using the sugar trust as an illustration. Gov. Sayers then put the question, and the resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice.

Attorney-General Campbell of Colorado then moved that a committee of five be appointed to formulate a bill along the line of the resolutions adopted and that the Governors at the conference present it to their respective Legislatures. Gov. Jones of Arkansas and Mr. Helffer of Washington, made some objection to this and it was lost.

Resolutions thanking Gov. Sayers for his efforts in behalf of the conference were adopted. Gov. Sayers then declared the conference adjourned in a brief speech.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—The resolutions adopted by the anti-trust conference are as follows:

We believe the best present available remedies lie along the following lines:

First—enactment and enforcement by the several States and the nation of legislation that shall adequately and fully define as crimes any attempted monopolization or restraint of trade in any line of industrial activity, with provisions for adequate punishment,

A Rush, a Crush: Bargain Friday

Bennie Morgan buys a suit And Saves 50c.

Doesn't he look trim and dressy? His mother says she never saw as rare a value even in the big eastern bargain centers—Other boys can have a chance at them today.

It's an Oxford mixed cheviot in brown cast, double-breasted style (small sizes are referees). Every one is sized and made for long and trying service.

Look at his Cap! Only 25c.

A Whole Tablefull for Today. Handsome, rich, warm looking ones—the season's fad—in plush, tweeds and Scottish plaids—some checks—some solid colors—and all of them are trimmed to match—We're told that they're sold at certain places for 50c.

How Proud He Is of His New Shoes!

So is his father, for they cost less than the shoddy sort. A "Little Gent's shoe" that's a perfect counterpart of papa's—in dress, in style—in finish and in service—of box calf with brass eyelets, and extension sole. The best fall shoe for boys you ever saw for $2.50, our shrewdness allows us to say only 1.48.

Sale of Men's White Shirts, 25c.

A Bargain Friday Bargain. We sold them last week and closed out size 16. They're unlaundered, with union linen bosoms, reinforced front and back and continuous faced. Don't miss them. On sale all day Friday.

CLAYTON AND HIS GUN.

DOUBLE CASE OF HOLD-UP IN AN ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

Earl Rogers, Esq., Assaulted at the Police Station by the Prisoner, Who Was Undergoing Search, Trouble Galore.

A vicious assault was made on Earl Rogers, Esq., by J. J. Clayton at the Police Station yesterday shortly after 12 o'clock. Clayton had been arrested by Sergt. Morton on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, and was being searched at the desk when the assault occurred. A British bulldog revolver, which had been taken from Clayton, was lying on the counter.

When Rogers revived he found himself in the Receiving Hospital, with Dr. Choate working over him. As soon as he had recovered sufficiently he was removed to his residence at 1308 Bush street, where he was resting last night. He expects to be out tomorrow. Clayton was locked up and he will probably have to answer to three charges of assault with a deadly weapon, one charge of carrying a deadly weapon and one charge of battery.

The first of the trouble occurred in Rogers' law office, in the Rock Block, corner First street and Broadway. About 12 o'clock yesterday Clayton, who is a large, powerful man, went into the office in search of Rogers. The latter's clerk, P. H. Thompson, was sitting at the table, and Clayton immediately covered him with a revolver, telling him to throw up his hands. Thompson saw that Clayton was drunk, and that he was in a dangerous mood, so he did not resist, but told Clayton to get out of the office.

Clayton refused to leave, and demanded that Thompson pay him a sum of money which he alleged was due him from Rogers. Thompson said that he knew nothing about it.

W. T. Jory, another clerk, entered the office about that time, and Clayton also covered him with his revolver and ordered him to sit down in a chair and throw up his hands, which he did. Clayton kept the two men in that position, pointing his gun at each alternately, until Rogers arrived at the office.

Rogers entered hurriedly, and did not take in the situation until Clayton, with a volley of curses, had him covered. Clayton then imparted the cheering information that he was going to blow the head of the attorney's head off. Rogers grasped the barrel of the revolver, but could not wrest the weapon from Clayton's hands. Clayton, with his superior weight, was gradually forcing the point of the gun toward his antagonist, who Rogers exerted all his strength and three Clayton from him, at the same time releasing his hold on the weapon. Rogers then went to the door slightly ajar so that he could talk to the occupants of the other room, but preventing Clayton from following him. Rogers then asked Thompson what Clayton wanted, and was told that he demanded a sum of money which he alleged was due him from Rogers. The Czar and Czarina on a Visit to Germany.

KIEL, Sept. 21.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Czar and Czarina arrived here at 9 a.m. today. As the Russian Imperial yacht Polar Star entered the harbor, the men on board the German warships manned the decks. A large crowd of people witnessed the arrival of Their Majesties.

Engraving Firms Indicted.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The Cook county grand jury today voted indictments against eighteen engraving firms, which are alleged to have formed a combination to control the engraving business in the West. The specific charge against them is conspiracy to defraud.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A WELL-KNOWN VIRGINIA EDITOR Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

[From the Times, Hillside, Va.] I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hope of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The complaint is sworn out by Charles E. Musen, a member of the police force.

In Justice Morgan's court yesterday afternoon, the defense appeared equipped to proceed with the case. The witnesses, however, were still gathering evidence, and was asked for a postponement, which was granted. The assault upon Edward Rogers resulted in his being charged with assault on the person. Rogers' attorneys were present to look after Mooney's interests. Raymond said they would endeavor to establish Mrs. Morgan's insanity.

The truth of the matter is that no portion of Los Angeles can be injured without correspondingly injuring the entire city. Persons indifferent to the general welfare of the city are removed from threatened neighborhood may say, "this is not my affair." or may think that a depression in real estate will cause development in another, but by their apathy to the welfare of the whole city they are permitting the establishment of a precedent that may in the future work them directly against them when the safeguards of ordinance for the public good are removed for the benefit of a privileged few. The city must open its eyes and ears to "influence" that so opened them will operate to keep them open.

Weather Conditions.—An area of high pressure is moving across the Pacific from the west, and the depression continues in the interior of California and in Southern Arizona, with the ridge of moderately high barometer along the coast, accompanied by clouds or heavy fog.

There has been little change in temperature west of the Rocky Mountains. It is warmer and fair east of the range. Clear weather prevails in the interior valleys of California.

Forecast.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Low clouds, fog tonight, becoming fair by Friday noon. Moderate temperature, westerly winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Forecast for Southern California. Cloudy, cooler tonight and Friday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21, 5 p.m.—Weather conditions and general forecast: The following maximum temperatures were reported from stations in California today:

Eureka 63
Fresno 80
Los Angeles 82
Sacramento 86
San Diego 78
San Francisco 62

San Francisco data: Maximum temperature, 62 deg.; minimum, 50 deg.; mean, 56 deg. An area of high pressure continues over the northern half of the Pacific coast, accompanied by generally fair, cool weather. The temperature has fallen slowly over Nevada, Arizona and the greater portion of California.

In the great valleys, the temperatures continue above the normal, but the clouds have been favorable for raising grain. Rain is falling at Neah. Dense fog prevails over the northern half of California.

Forecast made at San Francisco for thirty hours, ending at midnight, September 21:
Northern California: Fair Friday, light southerly, changing to northerly in the interior, westerly winds, on the coast with fog.

Southern California: Fair Friday, southerly winds, changing to northerly, westerly winds, on the coast with fog.

San Francisco and vicinity: Fair Friday with heavy fog in the morning, light southerly, changing to fresh westerly winds.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Redlands is fully alive to the desirability of municipal ownership of a water supply, and a practically unanimous vote of her people on Thursday last inaugurating the movement toward that end. The Redlands domestic supply is too small and too costly, not to mention its unreliability, and as the town is growing, and must continue to grow, it is plain there was nothing else the people could consistently do. In keeping with this step was the turning on of the current in the new electric lighting plant, and the construction of still another conduit for water to enlarge this plant to 6000 horse-power. This is a helpful and cheering object lesson for other towns and cities, and reflects much credit upon those who direct affairs there.

As strange as the tale of Aladdin and his wonderful lamp is the very recent history of the financial affairs of San Luis Obispo county. It is but a few months since the oldest and one of the most conservative banking institutions in the country had to go to the wall, being laid poor. Now the same land, the carrying of which burst the bank, under a plentiful rainfall has given such a crop of grain that men and machines to thrash it cannot be found. This great yield has stimulated grain-raising and now the greatest acreage of its history is being prepared in that county. Men who were debt-ridden have been enabled to look ahead again, and the outlook is bright for the future. Thousands of acres of grazing land are now being sown to grain, and values have greatly increased. In no other section of the country outside of Southern California is such a swift change possible.

A weather-wise "salt" who read the sketch of the passage of the British bark Porfoshore in yesterday's Times is enthusiastic over the promise of a wet winter insured by her strange experience. "Where the ship should have taken the northeast trades," he says, "she found a northwest wind to 22 deg. N., and then the wind veered to the northeastward, which, with the ship's westing at the time of the change, enabled her to head direct for her port. This northerly wind blows directly across the great Japan current, and being moisture-laden it must increase the humidity of the area over the current and land it all on the coast between Cape St. Lucas and Flattery." "Such a long-continued disturbance of the direction of the regular trade winds indicates unusual barometric pressures over deep water areas, and remarkable rainstorms are almost sure to result." This opinion is founded on sailor judgment, and is contrary in some things to Weather Bureau methods. This is cause for additional faith in it.

Riverside people push the prohibition theory to great extremes—on the surface. On a recent Sunday a Los Angeles man who arrived there about noon and found the thermometer at 105 in the shade, wishing to obtain a little stimulant before luncheon, went into a drug store and paid a dollar for a bottle of Hostetter's Bitters. As the druggist—who looked like a divinity student—was about to wrap up the medicine, the purchaser told him he wanted to first take a drink out of the bottle. The druggist almost fainted, and in horrified accents told the Los Angeles man that such a thing was entirely out of the question, and could not be allowed for a moment. So the perspiring citizen was obliged to defer his libation until he reached a secluded place. Yet, on the previous day, a Peris rancher had been arrested on the streets of Riverside in a state of total alcoholic collapse, and a resident of Riverside, who should know, declares that there are at least four places in that city where a person who "knows the ropes" can get all the stimulants he wants.

Nebbia's Lantern Exploded. A telephone alarm was sent in at 10:40 o'clock last night from the Columbus Winery on Macy street, but the services of the fire department were not needed. George Nebbia, a son of the proprietor of the winery, went into the cellar with a lighted lantern. It exploded and Nebbia's hands were painfully burned, but no damage resulted.

Events in Society.

Communications intended for the society columns of The Times must be signed, and must be written on only one side of the page. Anonymous communications of society events, personals, etc., and those which, because they are written on both sides of a page, have to be rewritten, will receive no attention.

Miss Bessie Shemwell of No. 2858 Orchard avenue, was the charming hostess yesterday afternoon at one of the most elaborate luncheon parties of the season among the younger set. The table decorations were dainty and exquisite, characterized by elegance and taste. The color scheme was white and green. Carnations were used in large quantities, arranged effectively with asparagus and maidenhair ferns, and loops and knots of satin ribbons. The mantel and buffet were banked with pampas grass and stocks of pink and white. The place cards were decorated with Chinese and pikanany heads, finished with ribbons. Following luncheon the guests were entertained with informal dancing, and flash-light pictures were taken for souvenirs. The guests were Misses Wicks, Ethel Works, Burnie Newlin, Kitty Kurtz, Mabel Godfrey, Mabel Currier, Betty Mallett, May Hitchcock, Jessie Houston, Mame Ham-bright, Lucy Mitchell and Mary Parsons. Miss Shemwell will leave Saturday for Baltimore, where she will enter Mrs. Cary's preparatory school for a year, after which she will visit Europe. She will be joined by Miss Nannie Nutt. En route Miss Shemwell will visit relatives in Colorado Springs for a few days.

Mrs. Margaret R. Berry entertained at cards Wednesday evening at her home, No. 2716 South Grand avenue. Progressive whist was the game played, and the first prize was captured by Mrs. Irving L. Blinn, and Mrs. G. T. Gay received second award. Those present were Mrs. C. J. Repp, Day of St. Louis, Ben Goodrich, Frank L. Moore, Tasker, Botsford, L. W. Blinn, I. W. Blinn, Hammond, J. V. Jekers, Charles Wier, G. T. Gay, Arthur J. Waters, Donald Macnell, Hitchcock, Sumption, Walter Lutz, Misses McCullough, Day, Goodrich, Volckers, Bartleson, and Church of Pasadena.

"We Boys" and lady friends assisted Charles R. Hixson in the celebration of his birthday Tuesday evening at the home of his parents in the Green Meadows district. From the terminus of the Vernon car line a large hay-rack conveyed the party to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hixson's country home. The grounds were beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns. Old-fashioned games were played, and refreshments were served. In appreciation of Mr. Hixson's services as an active member and former president of the society, "We Boys" presented him with a picture of six American authors, neatly framed. President I. H. Falls made the presentation speech, and Mr. Hixson responded. The following names were present: Mmes. J. S. Hixson, S. W. Crabb, C. T. Townsend, L. E. Nevins, Grace Jones, J. H. Birch, Misses Mary Fallis, Nannie Fallis, Lillian Fallis, Frances Kerr, Minnie Painter, Weltha Bowen, Nellie Book, Beatrice Eccles, Maude Bunker, Constance Jones, Opal McClary, Alice Freeman, Florence Dodge, Blanche Leffler, Hope Washburn, Maude Fellows, Nellie Hagdorn, Edna Hixson, Hazel Crabb, Mrs. C. R. Hixson, J. S. Hixson, S. W. Crabb, C. T. Townsend, L. E. Nevins, George Hargis, Jr., George Bishop, William Hobbs, Bert Robinson, William Wood, E. R. Long, H. C. Axtell, Robert Book, Sam Ecclestone, Floyd Green, William Herman, Edgar Freeman, Ralph Miller, Robert Schroeter, James Hancock, Rufus Fallis, Edward L. Payne, Irvin Fallis, George F. Vigus, E. C. Amos, E. B. Sweet, W. C. Hancock.

A very pretty wedding took place at "Magnolia Cottage," the residence of Dan W. Sawyer, No. 1118 East Forty-eighth street, Tuesday evening, the occasion being the marriage of their son, Addison L. Sawyer, to Miss Etta H. Robinson. Rev. Will A. Knighton officiated. The interior of the house was decorated throughout with white roses, pepper boughs and smilax. The bride wore a gown of white organdie. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns, tied with white satin ribbons. Miss Carrie E. Mattison was first bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink organdie trimmed with ruffles and ribbons. Will H. Robinson, brother of the bride, assisted as best man. Miss Orta Burke was second bridesmaid. She wore a white organdie over green. Fred G. Harvey assisted as second best man. Miss Ethel Ingram carried the ring. Miss Helen Geesey officiated at the piano and played the "Bridal Chorus" as the party entered the parlor and after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer left on their wedding tour the southern part of the State and will be at home after the 1st of October at No. 973 McGarry street. The bride received a large number of handsome presents.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.
Cards have been received in Los Angeles announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Maude Eleanor Thompson of Colorado Springs, Colo., to W. Winston Shemwell, formerly of this city, but now residing in Colorado Springs. The wedding will take place October 4, immediately after which Mr. Shemwell and his bride will visit his parents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Blinn will leave Monday for Tacoma, Wash., where they will reside permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Patterson and Miss Patterson left Thursday via the Santa Fe Railway for a few weeks' visit to their former home, Chillicothe, O., and to other eastern points.

Miss Minnie Montague returned Sunday from a two weeks' trip to the Grand Cañon and other points of interest around Flagstaff.

Mrs. William H. Cline and her two sons, George and William, have returned home after an absence of two months at Colorado Springs, Colo., where they will remain away two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams of No. 3329 Grant avenue gave a luncheon Thursday in honor of Bishop W. X. Nide. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hall, Misses Mattie and Lulu Williams and C. A. Williams.

The parishioners of Dr. Warren F. Dyer, who has recently returned from his summer vacation, will extend to him and Mrs. Day a "welcome home" reception this evening in the church parlors, corner Sixth and Hill streets.

Dr. and Mrs. Pritchard have removed to the Colonnade, on South Hill street. Howard Rivers of Court street has returned from San Francisco.

Miss Maude R. Taylor of this city and Charles C. Wagner of Fullerton were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride on Menlo avenue. Rev. A. J. Frost of the Orchard-avenue Baptist Church, officiated.

A Thousand Elks...

Will be in the city this week. They'll come from all over California and Arizona. Yesterday they went out to Fiesta Park and watched the other fellows "catch flies" and "strike out." Last night they helped dedicate the new hall and afterward got chock full of enthusiasm and things. Today they'll sail forth, or, perhaps, fifth, and view our beautiful city. They'll ride around on our wonderful street car system. Tonight they'll ride the goat till the whiskers fall off. Gentlemen, as far as it lies in our power, we bid you welcome. We invite you to visit our stores and get colored and cuffed; we also invite you to come in each morning and have your hat stretched free of charge. Seriously—if you need anything in Neckwear, Hats, Hosiery, etc., we'll be tickled to death to serve you.

HOUSE AND LOT.ANOTHER IMPORTANT SALE ON SOUTH BROADWAY.

Milo M. Potter Disposes of Another
Piece of Property—One More
Fine Residence for West
Seventh Street.

Flourishing Condition of Affairs in the Pretty Suburban Town of Inglewood—Subdivision
of Land.

Necessity of Extending the Irrigated
Area and Introducing Mixed Farming on Small Tracts.
Street Names.

Business has been fair in the local
real estate market during the past week, with a good inquiry for first-class property. The outlook continues
good for an excellent winter trade, although no important movement is expected until after the early rains.

ANOTHER BROADWAY SALE.
Another important sale of South
Broadway property has been made, the Crocker Block, between Second and Third, having been sold, through W. M.
Garland & Co., by Mrs. E. D. Crocker
of New York, to P. F. Fay of the Fay Fruit Company, for $55,000 cash. The lot is 55 by 160 feet, and the building a three-story brick and basement, valued at about $25,000. Mr. Fay, who has made other investments in Los Angeles, will improve the property so that it will bring in a revenue of about $450 a month. At the price quoted the property is considered a bargain.

MR. POTTER SELLS AGAIN.
The last piece of property owned by Milo M. Potter, who has made many profitable investments of late, has been disposed of, through the same firm, to Miss Sabina A. Lennon. It is the southeast corner of Sixth and Wall
streets, a lot 50 to 165 feet, with five cottages, bringing in $600 a month, and
was sold for $5500 cash.

FOR A FINE RESIDENCE.
Another sale made by this firm during the past week was that of 100 feet
on the west side of Garland avenue, in the Garland tract, between Seventh and Eighth streets, adjoining Mr.
Fay's residence, which was purchased by Parley M. Johnson of Ohio, brother of O. T. Johnson, for $3500. Mr. Johnson will build a fine mansion on this site.

A BIG DEAL.
W. M. Garland has been in New York
for a month, and will remain there
another month. He is said to be engineering one of the biggest real estate deals made in Los Angeles for many years.

SALE OF A FINE RANCH.
The State Bank and Trust Company
of Los Angeles have just sold to Mr.
A. A. Dolge of Delgerville, N. Y., the well-known Crank ranch of 301 acres,
located about three miles northeast of Pasadena. The property is highly improved, comprising 160 acres of wine
grapes, and seventy-five acres of full-bearing oranges. The Crank ranch is considered one of the finest in Southern California, and was sold for $25,000
through the agency of C. W. Conway, INGLEWOOD.

A suburban section near Los Angeles, which is destined to come into prominence before long, is that around Inglewood, on the Centinella ranch, situated ten miles southwest from Los Angeles, on rolling highland entering Centinella Valley on the north, with a landscape of foothills in the distance.
The land in the valley, being of a rich
sandy loam, makes it very productive,
all kinds of crops doing well. The town and valley at the time comprised
the Centinella ranch owned by Daniel Freeman and sons, consisting of some thirteen thousand acres. It is being subdivided into acres suitable for small purchasers, and in immediate surroundings the town is fast being sold and rented. Quite a diversity of gardening has been carried on here the past two or three years. A number of persons have turned their attention to cucumbers, the yearling fifty acres
having been planted, "Lou" Eldred and Mr. Thompson being the largest growers. One hundred dollars net, after having grown a crop of potatoes, barley on the same land, seems to be
the average result from cucumbers
this season. An average of six tons of cucumbers a day is being shipped to Los Angeles this month.

While Inglewood is not in the orange belt, yet oranges cut no small figure,
twenty-five cars being shipped last season. The station agent says that
from twenty-five to fifty cars of vegetables is the annual shipment.

The large warehouse owned by the Freemans, with a capacity of 600,000
sacks of barley, is rapidly filling up.
The brickyard which runs about eight months in the year is now turning out 35,000 a day of good building brick as is made anywhere in the country. No less than ten new houses have been erected during the past two years. The supply of water comes from sixteen
artesian wells, and one spring owned by Archie Freeman. It is being developed in capacity from 1000 to 225 inches,
a new centrifugal pump being added
for that purpose. It will be completed in a few days when Mr. Freeman assures the gardeners that he will supply them with all the water they want.

SMALL FARMING.
The San Francisco Chronicle quotes
with approval an article in the Pacific
Bee on small farming in California,
a question which is of great interest to owners of country land. In the course of the article the Bee says:

"For many years it was practicable
for farmers to make money by growing
wheat on a comparatively small scale.
A quarter-section sufficed for the needs
of a family. The price of the grain
often exceeded $2 a bushel, and rarely fell below $1.50. Crops were better than they now average, because the drain
upon the soil had not then begun to tell
so much as it does now. But with the decline in the price of wheat and the introduction of the combination harvesters, the day of the small wheat
farm passed. Profit was confined to the large farms, using the improved and costly machinery, so that labor was
dispensed with on a much larger scale.
The small farmers began selling out to the larger ones, and the big farms grew
larger by the addition of the small ones
surrounding them. Instead of the multitude of the large holdings, that the progress of the State required, there was a decline in small farming. It was found that the production of wheat under the new conditions, became less costly as the area cultivated by one person or firm increased, up to inde-
nite limits, and this fact had its natural effect in decreasing the number of homes. With the decrease or rural population small country towns decline
save where fruit-growing made up for the changed conditions of the wheat industry."

The conclusion which the Bee draws,
and which is doubtless perfectly sound,
is that we must begin to systematically
make use of the enormous supplies of water which California possesses for

the purpose of irrigating the lands
which it has thus far been unable to irrigate. These lands must be irrigated, not recklessly and all at once, under high pressure and regardless of expense, but deliberately and economically, as demand can be created for irrigated homes. Any attempt to base a "boom" on such projects, or
to obtain high prices on the promise of
"unlimited" markets for the products
of intensive culture would be suicidal.
The proper use of these lands is for
good, old-fashioned mixed farming,
where the farmer first of all raises
what he wants to eat, and as much more to sell as may be. It is quite time
we got down from our high horse and offer cheap lands for what is understood by "farming" in other portions of the civilized world.

STREET NAMES.
The Land and Title Register thinks
that there is room for much improvement in the American method of naming streets. That journal says:

"A broad field opens before municipalities in the matter of improved methods of designating streets. In many cities conditions are crude and confusing, to the stranger well-nigh
enigmatical. There is a hodge-podge
jumbling of names without local or national significance or alphabetical order. Ill-sounding names such as
"Great Jones street," in New York,
and "Max avenue," in St. Paul, are all too numerous.

"It is an easy matter to properly and effectually cover a town or city with thoroughfares so designated and using
the hundred to a block number system
that both citizen and stranger may find a ready point of reference. The names of streets, however, are not always so easily changed. The names of streets running in one direction
known as First street, Second street,
and so on up the scale, with cross
streets as avenues beginning with First avenue, is a popular and ready plan.
The names of Presidents, warriors
and statesmen, poets, and literary figures in alphabetical order is also in favor. There should be as few dividing lines as possible.

"Municipalities approach near to a model in the matter of street-naming,
Washington, with its thoroughfares
called after letters of the alphabet, has
a harsh sound and needs reforming.

BUILDING.
Among the contracts as noted in the Builder and Contractor as having been
let are the following:

The remodeling and building addition
to the large building on the west side
of Grand avenue near Pico street for
J. B. Lankershim.
A two-story frame residence to be built on the north side of Adams street
opposite Ellendale Place, for Maj. W.
H. and Mrs. Eliza D. Bonnell.
The following permits of $2000 and
over were issued by the City Superintendent of Buildings:

Los Angeles Brewing Company, brick
bottling works, No. 622 East Main street, $3000.
C. A. Weissman, two-story seven-
room frame residence at No. 1411 South
Los Angeles street, $2000.

In a Mexican Jail.
It is reported that Juan Pablo Martinez, who killed a Mexican in Santa Monica Canyon some months ago, is in jail in Ensenada, Lower California.
He was arrested at Tia Juana for some
minor offense, and was recognized,
having been placed in jail at Ensenada.

About Japan.
Miss Iris H. Wood, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Frank E. Wood, a well-known teacher of science in the East, herself well known in this city
and vicinity, has written a highly interesting and descriptive letter to the Melton Junction (Wis.) News from Japan,
where she now is, with her father.

them yesterday, and all the outside trees at least are heavily loaded." I said, "I think I will go over and see them." Several parties had told me there were none, after the fall of the blossom. Relying on the report of a member of my church, I considered it safe to say that this orchard was like the rest. In this I was led astray. On reaching home at night, I found a note from Mr. McEwen inviting me to drive over to his place, which I did early the next morning. I told Mr. McEwen that I owed him an apology for my remarks about his place; that I was sorry for the error I had been led into, and would like to set things right. He got in with me, and we rode down through the long rows of trees. It was a revelation. Every tree the entire length of the grove was heavily laden with the enormous load. It was evident the present owner never planted the grove, for there were endless varieties, but without exception the olive crop which the owners of so many thousands of acres of this sort of fruit in California have been hoping and waiting for was to the grove as all the orchards I had visited hitherto had crops only one outside row, we drove in all directions across the orchard, but the heavy laden trees were everywhere in evidence. Naturally enough I thought here is a man of whom to learn something. Mr. McEwen is an intelligent man of large affairs, painstaking, methodical, to whom evidently no detail is insignificant. I asked how are these results brought about. Hundreds of men in California are trying for this result, but fail. How do you succeed? He said he did not know; that he was no farmer, but his father, he remembered having said, "a lousy calf never takes on fat." So you grow olive trees clean. They grow along the side of my orange trees, and when I use water I give the olive trees a fair share, as if I expected as much from one as the other. I do my part in assisting them to maintain healthy self-respect. In other words, I have endeavored to give them a show. I said "a man's opinion is of weight and value in proportion to the success he has in accomplishing things. Your opinion ought to go a long way on this subject." He said for pruning he cleaned out the center, and kept the whole top reasonably open. When he gave his oranges deep cultivation he gave the same to the olives. He does not seem to have reached or acquired the notion that the olive requires only poor soil, scant water and indifferent care, or that its culture something can be grown for nothing. He has been liberal with his grove, and it has reciprocated. I am convinced that this man can grow olives. But he is a bundle of habits, prejudices and superstitions. We do not change our notions, our physician or our religion. An object lesson is lost in this country. The row of trees next the head ditch and the last two rows that get the fallings in our prune orchards, give us all the large prunes and the best part of the crop; yet for years it has been the belief of a multitude of ranchers that prunes need but little water. The belief has been current for years that olives will grow anywhere, in washes and poorest soil, and suffer neglect and drought, and if the season was normal an "off" year would be skipped and we would get a crop. Not under Mr. McKinley's administration or any other. We read learned discourses of the various methods of propagating olive trees, from seeds, and tips and truncheons. Would it not be as well and vastly more expeditious to apply to trees already grown, what in England they call wagon horse sense, as this rancher has done, and the chances are the olive question would be on its way to solution. INVESTIGATIONS BY "THE TIMES."

In order to uncover the truth concerning the olive industry, The Times instructed one of its representatives, a practical horticulturist, to visit a large number of growers who have had experience with the olive, and represent a report written from the ranchers' standpoint, retaining memoranda of each individual's statement, with his name, for future reference; and this has been done. The condensed testimony is here presented, and The Times regrets that it is not favorable to olive-growing. In common with all who have engaged in this enterprise in good faith, this journal deplores the facts as set forth in this account, but believes that nothing but good can come to Southern California by setting forth the truth as it appears.

RESULTS OF THE INQUIRY.

The present agitation of the olive question through the city and local press has caused the fruit-growers generally to awake to the fact that one fruit industry, at least, is subject to some divergence of opinion as to its worth and stability; that ten or fifteen years of experience with the olive has settled nothing, or if it has, the public is unaware of the verdict. So general is the interest and so important the subject, that the writer has gone to considerable trouble to discover the condition of the olive business, and to set forth the facts and prospects from an unbiased standpoint. In preparing this report many of the leading olive men have been visited in almost every neighborhood covering the territory from Ontario westward, and centering principally around Pomona, the leading section for olives in this part of the State. These growers and dealers have expressed themselves in every case with regard to this section in the olive-growing directly from one who has been engaged in growing or preparing olives for the market, or from the direct observation of the writer, it is believed this publication will throw some light upon the mooted question as to profit in olives. The Times has divested this matter of its local character, and no difficulty was found in getting permission to use the growers' names with their statements, which are preserved together for reference.

No Gloom in Concerning the Truth.

[Pomona Times:] J. W. Jeffreys, of Azusa was in Pomona Monday and yesterday. He is doing horticultural work for The Los Angeles Times, and is now especially detailed to look up olive conditions in Pomona and vicinity. Mr. Jeffreys will industriously look up the facts and conscientiously report them. There is not a man in this section, nor in any other so far as we know, that does not wish the olive-growing to prosper. As we have said, and now repeat, we haven't given up hope of the industry. The teaching that the olive would flourish on soil too poor for other fruits, and without irrigation, is not true here. Olive trees, like other trees, respond to good treatment—plenty of water, enough fertilizer and timely and good cultivation.

We have heard of two rows of olive trees on a street near La Verne, Nevada. The Blancos on one side and Picholinos on the other, which have borne full crops several years, and that the Nevadillos extended past the Picholinos and to that extent bore nothing. Now, this argues in favor of the cross-pollination theory. It may be that a few simple facts ascertained and applied will make our olive trees bear, but we don't believe they will bear much without as careful attention as we give our best orange orchards. We understand Mr. McEwen takes as good care of his olive trees as he does his orange trees. If not given good care, they either breed or attract black scale to a greater extent than any other trees. There is nothing to be made by concealing facts which experience is sure to reveal. We believe Mr. Jeffreys will ascertain and report many facts, and

and the elimination of the amateur picker, the great majority who have invested literally millions in land and orchards, and are yet undecided what to do with the proposition, might be benefited by a plain statement of conclusions as to the cause of crop failures and market discouragements.

Close observation shows that the lack of pollination is the principal cause of barrenness. A large number of varieties examined, while blooming profusely, do not become fertile each within itself, and thirty-five-acre orchard planted solidly to Nevadillos was found which for four years had not borne a dozen olives to the tree. A row of Nevadillos was noted not a mile distant, with a parallel row of Picholinos, which was loaded with fruit, the result of cross-fertilization. In both cases the trees were given the same care and attention. A half-mile west stands a row of Missions, which never missed a crop till two years ago. Since the Picholinos opposite were cut down two years ago the Missions have been barren. Another row of isolated Missions on the same farm, and in both cases, the culture being the same in both cases. In another place a row of trees was fruitful only as far as a pollinating agent paralleled on the opposite side of the road. The owner said he averaged $8 per tree per year, and hopes his olive business will continue the worthless Picholine. Dozens of instances were found where a few olives were set upon the northeast side of the tree, and none on the other portion, showing that the tree had pollinated itself from the agency of the southwest breeze; and almost invariably where trees are fruitless, the culture being the same in both cases. MUSTERED OUT.

MEMBERS OF BATTERY D ARE NOW PRIVATE CITIZENS.

Will Reach Los Angeles Shortly After Noon Tomorrow—Everything in Readiness for Their Reception—Will Spend Their Pay Here.

The members of Battery D, California Heavy Artillery, are no longer in the military service of the United States. They were formally mustered out yesterday morning at the Presidio in San Francisco, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock they will begin the journey home. With their arrival here the last command which is distinctly a Los Angeles organization will have returned home after a service of nearly eighteen months. Other Los Angeles men are now fighting for the flag, the total number being perhaps more than one hundred, but there is no organization in any branch of the service now which is made up wholly of men from this city. Los Angeles placed two magnificent commands at the disposal of the government. One of them returned months ago and received a welcome commensurate with its service. The other will reach the city shortly after noon tomorrow and will be greeted in a manner which will show that the spirit of patriotism is even stronger here now than it was when the first call for troops was made.

Everything is in readiness for the reception of the returning troops. The arrangements had been completed days ago and all that was desired was definite information as to the time that the special train carrying the soldiers would reach the city. With the receipt of that information the final work of preparation was begun, systematically, carefully and intelligently, and it will be continued until the scores of details are properly looked after. Long before the train arrives the several companies who have charge of the preparation for the reception will have completed their work. There has been much to do but there has been many to do it, and it has been done willingly and without other remuneration than the satisfaction of having contributed to the success of an event which does not occur often in any city's history. The effort of those who have arranged the programme for tomorrow has been to avoid confusion, to make the welcome a real welcome, and to show the members of the battery that their long service in distant Luzon is appreciated by the whole people. How well they have succeeded tomorrow's events will show.

At a meeting of the War Board yesterday official information as to the time of the arrival of the special train bearing the soldiers was announced, and with it the gratifying information that the members of the battery will be the only meers within their power reciprocate the efforts of the local merchants in their behalf. The day before the secretary of the board telegraphed Capt. Diss suggesting that the men be asked to buy such supplies as they will need upon their entrance into private life in this city. Yesterday a reply was received which shows that the soldiers appreciate the manner in which they have been received by the people here. Capt. Diss's telegram to the secretary of the War Board read:

"Battery leaves here Friday. Arrive there 12:30. Boys unanimously desire to spend money among Los Angeles merchants. Feeling strong for home people."

The preparations of the War Board had been completed and as there was no change in the programme to be made, all that was necessary was to set in motion the final work for the reception. The programme, as heretofore published will be followed without change.

Applications for tickets, permitting holders thereof to pass through the cordon at River station on the arrival of the train have been made in such numbers that it has been found impossible to grant all the requests. The tickets are intended for use by relatives of the members of the battery, but many persons have endeavored to secure them who have no right to them. Throughout the day yesterday the secretary of the War Board was deluged with applications. It had been announced that three tickets would be issued to the family of each member of the command, but some of the applicants could not understand why they too were not entitled to admission to the depot. One woman wanted twelve tickets and several asked for eight or ten each, but such requests were of course refused.

The ladies of the Red Cross have completed their preparations for the part they will take in the reception. They will telegraph Capt. Diss today to inform him that they are ready to receive him and his men.

Shoes Excellence and Reasons.

There are over three thousand tanneries in the United States, and every one is responsible for the wearing qualities of shoes. Two leathers may look alike—one may be hopelessly damaged in the tanning, the other properly cured and finished. You are as apt to get one as the other. Your only guide is the reliability of the store selling the shoes.

We buy shoes of the most noted and best shoemakers, who in turn buy leather of tanneries which have never made mistakes or turned out "seconds." We are absolutely sure of the qualities of our shoes. We do not hesitate to guarantee every pair, and you can safely trust them. Our shoe business has grown to such proportions that we can handle larger quantities than any other store within your reach. With quantity comes cheapness. We do not find it necessary to buy trash or leavings of shoes of questionable origin. We select and sell the best that shoe knowledge and shoe study and shoe testing can point out, and sell them as cheaply as possible.
